Description
Provide a short description of the event and its activities.
The twin town meeting in Ludányhalász was a new approach to cultural dialogue and friendship between citizens on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the accession of the Central European countries to the EU. The meeting was attended by delegations from Čeláre in Slovakia, which joined the EU in 2004, TYCZYN and LYSKI in Poland, Darkovice in the Czech Republic, Csíkszentlélek in Romania and Pačir in Serbia, which is on the verge of EU accession. The technical programme of the meeting focused not only on strengthening links between EU citizens, but also on the rights and social inclusion of people with disabilities. We built our programme on local specificities by involving social homes for people with disabilities in our project. Priority was given to building links between people with disabilities and local citizens and to implementing the social inclusion elements of the programme. As well as presenting local traditions and customs of the sister communities, cultural events included performances by people living in the institutions, helping to integrate them into social life. We also presented good examples of the work and skills of disadvantaged people to increase acceptance. We also aimed to promote knowledge about European values and the European Union in the professional programme of our meetings. We have also been able to encourage groups less active or less interested in the themes of our professional programme by accompanying our intercultural dialogue events. We presented the EU's catching-up programmes and the achievements of the last 20 years. We have exchanged experiences and presented to each other and to delegations from countries applying for EU membership the opportunities we have seized to encourage them to commit to EU integration. The PREJUDICE-FREE AND INCLUSIVE EUROPE 4-day town-twinning meeting: a programme of informal discussions and exchanges on local governance, which provided a new approach to cultural dialogue and friendship between citizens in the context of the 20th anniversary of the accession of the Central European countries to the EU. Highlights: Professional programme with people with disabilities - Sensitivity through innovative means: exhibition and demonstration at the institution. Handicraft production - interaction. Exchange of experiences / Ludányhalászi-Csalár/: Living the values of Europe - Social acceptance in practice. What has democracy given us? What does the EU give us? - presentations of EU-funded projects Joint cultural programme on acceptance and ACCEPTANCE. 35 years of freedom - 20 years in the EU photo exhibition The EU is not (just) a game - knowledge broadening in a playful way. Joint evaluation of equal opportunities programme elements. Participation in the Twinning meeting (location LUDÁNYHALÁSZI - Hungary (HU), Date: 19/06/2025 - 22/06/2025) was as follows: 3000 indirect participants 1000 direct participants, of which 135 invited participants SK ČELÁREE - 92 people (46 women – 46 man) RO CSÍKSZENRLÉLEK – 5 people (3 women – 2 man) PL TYCZYN, LYSKI– 18 people (9 women – 9 man)

The values of the European Union - our fears and our real knowledge Participatory democracy - local government, youth, democracy, decision-making

Programme evaluation, evaluation of experiences. Adoption of a joint final declaration

Dissemination activities:

We have sought to achieve visibility of the project's results at European level through a wide range of activities, building on our own and our partner organisations' resources, contacts and opportunities. Our collaboration, based on strategic partnerships, has the potential to deliver a wide range of dissemination activities. Our municipalities have their own newspapers, advertising spaces, websites, social media platforms (Facebook profile), but we have also been able to involve a wide range of media contacts in the wide dissemination of the project results.

By focusing on equal opportunities and tolerance, but with the aim of getting involved in shaping a common European future, we have conveyed the need for intercultural dialogue and the desire for a strong Europe committed to democracy and freedoms, both during the preparation and the implementation phases.
